

Enbridge Launches EnergyLink

Enbridge Gas Distribution has launched their EnergyLink™, a “free, convenient referral service” that will help residential and small business customers find natural gas contractors in their neighborhoods. This service is to help connect customers with local HVAC contractors for the purchase and installation of natural gas products such as furnaces, fireplaces and water heaters. To further explore this subject please visit the Enbridge website at www.enbridge.com/ .

“Enbridge Launches EnergyLink” HRAI Associates Link, Published by the Heating, Refrigeration and Air Conditioning Institute of Canada. January 2007 edition: pg # 2.