FALL EXHIBITIONS & WORKSHOPS

Kai Chan: A Spider's Logic

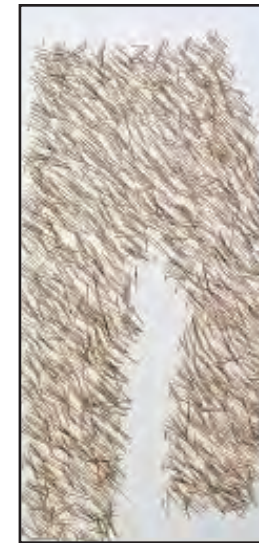

September 26, 2010 – January 31, 2011

Curated by Sarah Quinton | In partnership with the Textile Museum of Canada, Toronto

The exhibition includes a selection of Kai Chan's sculptural works, created between 1975 and 2010. The exhibitions are presented concurrently at the Varley Art Gallery in Markham and the Textile Museum of Canada, in Toronto with the exhibition at the Textile Museum of Canada opening in early November. An exhibition catalogue will be published to accompany the exhibition. A Canadian artist with Chinese roots, Kai Chan's story is one that echoes the experiences of many of us, as it is about how immigrants imagine belonging in Canada.

Visit www.varleygallery.ca for more details about related artist and curator talks, lectures, workshops and special events

A catalogue will accompany the exhibition. Supported by the Museums Assistance Program

Kai Chan Deep Blue Sea 2001, toothpicks, thread, nails, watercolour, dye, detail.

Kai Chan What it is I came for, I turn and turn, Part VI 2004, sticks of incense, detail.

Children's Workshops

PA Day Extravaganza

Let your kids creative juices flow in our full day mixed media art workshop for kids ages 6-12. Each PA Day will be a different art adventure with painting, drawing, and sculpture creation in the morning and specially designed project in the afternoon to stimulate and challenge your creative geniuses.

Haunted Hallowe'en at the Varley

Young creative minds will delight in creating ghostly decorations that will spook the neighbours! Make their very own spooky decorations and a hand-sculpted dish to store the candy and treats. For kids ages 5 - 10.

Crafty Christmas Camp

Treat the kids to a day filled with creativity, fun and Holiday Cheer! 'Tis the season to create your own Christmas tree ornaments, and Snowman Sculpture. For kids ages 5-10. All materials included.

Olde Tyme Christmas

Friday, December 3, 2010

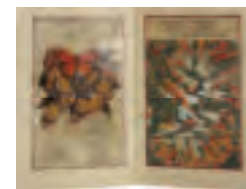

After the parade down Unionville Main Street, come inside to the warmth and enjoy an evening of fun, entertainment and joy! Join our vibrant art programs for kids ages 4-10, hot cocoa and cider and holiday music.

FREE exhibition admission and art activities.

Adult Workshops

Altered Books Workshops with Judith Livingston

Transform old, hardcover books into new works of art by drawing, adding colour and collaging those scraps and treasures you have saved for years. Interactive features such as pockets, windows and niches add to the intrigue and enjoyment of your creative, thought-provoking Altered Book. Materials list will be available 10 days prior to the start of the workshops. The program is designed to celebrate Ontario Public Library week. A selection of books can be viewed at the Varley Art Gallery starting in September. See course grid for more details.

The 9th Annual Homes for the Holidays House Tour is a unique designer showcase featuring beautiful homes from Markham and Unionville, decorated inside and out by teams of local designers. The house tour is a two day event, including two receptions hosted at the Town of Markham Civic Centre. The exclusive Twilight Tour includes gourmet fare, entertainment and wine tasting. Saturday offers refreshments and holiday decorating inspirations. Both receptions include holiday boutique shopping with draws and giveaways helping to create a festive ambience. This year, a lecture and workshop series will be launched at the Varley Art Gallery, providing participants with decorating and design tips, offered by members of our talented design team.

Proceeds from the tour are shared equally between the Varley-McKay Art foundation which supports the Varley Art Gallery of Markham and York Region Breast Cancer Friends. Last year's event raised close to $100,000.00 for the charities we support.
